

Position Description Manager, Communications and Marketing

Job Title:	Manager, Communications and Marketing
Reports To:	Executive Director
Location:	Tulsa, OK
Status:	Full-time, exempt
Salary Range:	$50,000 - $60,000

Amplify Youth Health Collective (Amplify) seeks a full-time Communications and Marketing Manager with a high level of initiative, creativity, and exceptional organizational skills to increase awareness and visibility of Amplify. This role will lead the development and implementation of a strategic communications plan, manage innovative social media outreach, coordinate advocacy campaigns, and utilize partnerships to expand collaboration among key stakeholders and the community. Amplify is looking for a compelling storyteller who will increase community awareness about the importance of youth sexual health and well-being; amplify the urgency to address sexual health inequities that exist for marginalized young people; and highlight the work of our partner network. The Communications and Marketing Manager must be creative, innovative, experienced, and have the ability to anticipate organizational needs and adapt to a variety of audiences with high levels of judgement. This position will work closely with the Executive Director to create meaningful communications for the organization and collective network.

Amplify fosters a culture of kindness, integrity, innovation, collaboration, and equity. Our values inform the way we work together internally and with our community partners. Candidates must exhibit dedication and commitment to the young people of Tulsa, and a strong commitment to the mission, goals, and values of Amplify. They should also enjoy working within a small, entrepreneurial, mission-focused, and community-oriented environment.

About Amplify Tulsa

Amplify is a collective-impact organization advancing youth sexual health and well-being in Tulsa, with an emphasis on reducing Oklahoma's high teen birth and STI rates, through collaboration, education, and advocacy. Our team is committed to fostering a collaborative, affirming, safe, and rewarding workplace. We value the contributions and skills of all team members.

- Lead all external communication efforts, including website maintenance, social media management, newsletter creation and distribution, advertising, and other marketing activities
- Support and promote community outreach efforts, including tabling events and speaking engagements
- Develop flyers, brochures, annual reports, and other collateral materials
- Create video and print photography resources to support all marketing strategies
- Collaborate with Tulsa Health and Education (THE) Coalition and Youth Leadership Council to inform messaging and increase project participation
- Create and distribute press releases to alert media on critical issues and initiatives
- Seek out local and national promotional opportunities to feature Amplify initiatives, including media outreach, conference RFPs, and academic journal submissions
- Design newsletters to inform key stakeholders, supporters, and the community about key organization updates and other relevant news

- Assist in the development and execution of Amplify projects in collaboration with the team
- Collaborate with grant manager on Amplify fundraising strategies and financial plan
- Collaborate with the program director to meet design and marketing needs for trainings and projects
- Support organization wide events with event planning and logistics

Qualifications and Education

Amplify is an equal opportunity employer and we are committed to equitable community representation among Amplify Staff and Board of Directors. We value a diverse workforce and a culture of inclusivity and belonging. Our goal is to attract qualified candidates and encourage applications from all individuals without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or any other characteristic or activity protected by applicable law. We believe that systems of oppression disproportionately hurt people of color, people from working class backgrounds, LGBTQ+ people, and women. We believe that these communities must be centered in the work we do. Hence, we strongly encourage applications from people with these identities or who are members of other marginalized communities.
